Note: After enrolment application, all students are required to undergo pre-enrolment assessment before student offer is finalised. Pre-enrolment assessment is conducted to determine course credits, admission requirements, genuineness, language, literacy and numeracy and student support.

Question 1: Purpose of Pre-enrolment Analysis The international student Pre-Enrolment Analysis will inform Gamma College about the learner's existing and prior experience, informal learning and formal unit (s) of competency and qualifications held. Also, learners' current Literacy and Numeracy (LLN) skills will be determined to cater training and assessment according to their needs. The analysis will also inform the RTO about your aptitude, anticipations from the qualification and the reasons to undertake the qualification at this RTO. This analysis will further result in the development of individualised training and assessment strategies and plans to maximise vocational outcomes. Therefore, learners' response to this document will provide opportunities for assessing Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL), credit transfers (CT), special support, English requirements, computer literacy, and LLN related support. Refer to the Competency overview at www.gamma.edu.au for the qualification on offer. You may review important information about the qualification in the light of your expectations and your previous experience. Please select "YES" in the comment box if you have read and understood the Purpose statement.  Yes  No
